Available now: several new Pictograms!

The three new Pictogram kits are easy to use and a perfect aid at school and at home.

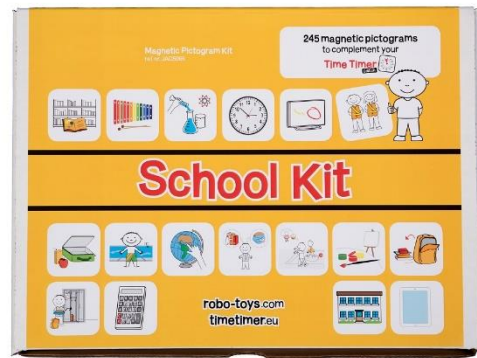

The Essential Kit

The Essential Kit is very complete and our largest magnetic set of pictograms with 280 images. You can display several activities or rituals in a sequence to help develop social interaction. Suitable for school and at home.

The School Kit

The School Kit is a perfect aid at primary school. Using magnetic pictograms you can display a format in terms of functions or activities. This kit contains 245 magnetic pictograms.

The Children's Reward System

The Children's Reward System has pictograms to encourage children to do their tasks well and at the same time, to learn a sense of responsibility. By rewarding the daily performance a child will be stimulated and motivated to develop its independence. Also small successes may be celebrated as great victories. The possibilities are endless!
